*CALL TO WORSHIP

When we measure our worth against another’s blessing—

God’s grace is more generous than our calculations.

When we fear there will not be enough—

Christ welcomes all with extravagant love.

When we long to rejoice in grace given to others—

The Spirit invites us into the joy of grace freely shared.

*OPENING PRAYER

God of astonishing generosity, you welcome the last and the first with the very same embrace. Soften our envy when your grace flows freely toward those we believe have not earned it, and free us from measuring our worth against others’ blessings. Teach us to rejoice in your extravagant love, that we might become people who delight in grace wherever it is found. Amen.
